HAVE YOU CONSIDERED a Group reading event? They are very powerful. If you have not experienced this atmosphere, I encourage you to do so. Not only is the cost less than a one-on-one reading, $25,000, but the energy raises to a dynamic level in the room, and most people find it extremely powerful. As you listen to the answers others receive you often hear your circumstance in other people's question. Reservations are required. I take a maximum of 16 people. Visit www.phyllisking.net or call 925.556.3323 to reserve

Remember, Know, and Trust.

Last month at my group reading events I was honored to read many beautiful individuals. Although on the outside the questions were different, on the inside the yearning was very much the same.

That yearning I see so often is to feel comfortable in one's body, at peace with the process of life, and joyful at the prospect of whatever the future may hold. The conflict arises when we feel unsure about how to make all that happen.

It is really quite simple. We make it more difficult than it has to be. Why do we do this? We forget three basic rules of life.

Remember. We must remember we are a spirit in a body. In this dimension we have two bodies. Our physical body and our spiritual essence body. The physical body and its needs are dominated by the ego. The ego allows us to gain personal mastery over our physical concerns. Conversely our life challenges, our desire to understand who we are, the nature of life, all the questions about "why" in our existence can only be answered through the spiritual essence. Too often people ask a life/why question from the ego, when the answer can only be provided through the spiritual essence.

The ego exists in a finite limited environment. The spiritual essence is eternal. It is part of the Source that created everything. The vastness of our capability can not even be fully realized in this finite existence. If we give our power to the concerns of ego, we cut ourselves off from the power of Source...from where we came...from who we are.

I often use the analogy of watching life flow by us like a river. We must learn to flow with the river. Not control it, and not tell it where to go and when to do it. If we choose addictions of the ego, such as worry, fear, doubt, and sadness, we essentially hit rocks while we flow with life.

Know. Once we remember our truth we must "know" that our needs are already met beyond our wildest expectations. It is the ego that assigns a timetable to results or tells us what the result should look like. It is the ego that tells us there is a limited amount of anything to go around. It is the ego that says "I'm too fat, I'm too old, I should have, could have, would have, if only..." The essence knows only perfection, prosperity, and unlimited supply. We must remember this truth, we must know it.

Trust. From remember to knowing, finally we must trust. When we trust life we allow ourselves to relax into the flow of life. We hear our inner guidance. We can easily choose our perspective. Will our perspective be one of defeat and sadness? Or, will it be one of adventure, opportunity and joy? It is our choice and we have free will.

In group readings, and in private readings, although the stories are different, the yearning is often the same. The answer is always within reach. It always starts with remember, know and trust. Anything other than these choices puts the ego in the superior position. That subordination will always lead to conflict, confusion, and pain.

You are a powerful and mighty being. You will not even realize your full potential in this limited existence. You are part of a source with unlimited bounty. That is part of you. You are unlimited bounty. Remember it, know it and trust it.
